

Expect Complaint To UN Over UAR Jets' Pursuit Of Hussein

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

AMMAN (AP)—Jordan today was expected to complain to the United Nations about what King Hussein called an attempt to kill or capture him in a flight over Syria. The Jordan Parliament was called in an emergency session to hear the retaliatory steps promised by the young king. He raced home Monday with United Arab Republic jet fighters in pursuit two hours after taking off for a vacation in Europe.

Bridges Proposes GOP Changes To Give Jobs To Senate Liberals

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A counter proposal by Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) took some of the fire out of a growing revolt by the Senate's Republican liberals today.

With the liberals demanding a greater voice in Republican affairs, Bridges proposed to expand the GOP leadership jobs to three and include a liberal in one of the posts.

Mark 40th Anniversary Of Armistice

WASHINGTON (AP)—Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff called upon the nation today for courage, sacrifice and preparedness to face up to what he called the Communist campaign of bluster and blackmail.

"The American cause has become inseparable from the cause of all mankind," he said in an address prepared for Veterans Day services at the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery.

The ceremonies marked the first observance of the day since Unknowns of World War II and Korea were buried by the Unknown Soldier of World War I. The day marked the 40th anniversary of the World War I armistice, and the fifth observance of Veterans Day, established by Congress in 1954.

Sarnoff, chairman of the board of the Radio Corp. of America, recalled the sacrifices made by American fighting men in those wars.

Charge Mother With Murder In Death Of Infant

HOUSTON (AP)—Police charged a young mother with murder early today in the death of her 4-week-old daughter, one of three children in the family who have died since 1956 of what was listed as pneumonia.

They accused Mrs. Iris Conrad, 19, of suburban Bellaire with killing the infant by "throwing her down on the floor." The child, Lynda Conrad, died Nov. 2.

Bellaire Police Chief Jack O'Brien would say only that "a statement was made and a charge was filed."

Authorities questioned the woman for about 10 hours before the charge was filed shortly after midnight.

Mrs. Conrad's attorney, William M. Hatten, said "the whole thing has been instigated by the insurance companies."

He said $750 was paid by an insurance company after the death of another Conrad child last May, but that there was no insurance on Lynda. The couple has one living child, Robert, 4.

Others who died include Richard, 3 months, and George Jr., 9 months, Richard died Oct. 29, 1956, and George last May 15.

Mrs. Conrad told investigators in May that George died shortly after she found Robert stomping the baby on her living room floor. Peace Justice W. C. Ragan said he would not set bond until Mrs. Conrad has been examined by the Harris County psychiatrist.

Does Khrushchev Really Mean To Junk 4-Power Rule In Berlin?

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY

AP Foreign News Analyst

If Nikita Khrushchev really means what he says about abolishing four-power rule in Berlin and freedom of transport between West Berlin and West Germany, there's going to be a new and dangerous international crisis.

The Western powers stood up to the Soviet Union 10 years ago on this issue and forced a Russian backdown with the successful airlift.

So long as the Russians and their East German satellites only talk about blockading Berlin things will be all right. But if they try actually to interfere with Western control over West Berlin or transport and communications between West Germany and West Berlin, there will be real trouble.

And this time, in contrast to

While the U.A.R. was inclined to play down the incident Hussein emerged as a hero in the eyes of many of his people. Jordanians mixed wild celebrations of joy with bitter demonstrations against the U.A.R.

Relations between the king and President Nasser's U.A.R. worsened just when there were indications the two Arab leaders were about to patch up their feud.

Some officials in Jordan reportedly viewed the incident as an attempt to kidnap the 23-year-old king and force him to sign his abdication. There was no confirmation of this theory, however.

Hussein charged the jets tried to force his plane down.

U.A.R. officials in Cairo denied the charges. They said Hussein's plane lacked proper clearance to fly over the Syrian Province of the U.A.R.

In Damascus, a spokesman for the U.A.R. air force claimed today Hussein's plane had violated international conventions and local aviation instructions over Syria "sufficient to justify shooting it down."

He added that "instead of using their legitimate right under international laws to take positive action against the intruding plane, the region authority only sent two jet fighters to escort it out of Syrian air space."

He denied any attack on the Jordanian plane.

President Nasser was reported to be convinced Syrian authorities acted properly but also to be upset by the incident, which worsened U.A.R.-Jordanian relations after a recent improvement.

A national holiday was declared throughout Jordan to celebrate the escape of the 23-year-old king. Crowds surged through the narrow streets of Amman Monday night, firing roman candles and rifles.

U. of I. Flight Teacher, Student Killed In Crash

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—A University of Illinois flight instructor and his student were found dead today in the wreckage of a single engine training plane.

Jesse Stonecipher, chief flight instructor at the university, said the plane apparently crashed in an attempted landing Monday night at the university airport, south of Champaign.

Stonecipher identified the dead as Floyd Ernst of Urbana, the instructor, and Charles Pease of Champaign, a senior in the university's aviation course.

Ernst and Pease were on a training flight from Champaign to St. Louis and return. They had completed the first leg of the trip and were en route home.

Stonecipher said Ernst radioed an airport in Springfield at 10:46 p.m. and gave his estimated time of arrival at Champaign as 11:30 p.m. Ernst gave no indication the plane was in trouble, Stonecipher said.

Airport personnel began a ground and air search of the Champaign area when the arrival time passed with no word from the aircraft.

A watchman finally sighted the wreckage about 6 a.m. today near the edge of the 700-acre airport. The crash scene was some distance from the field's regular duty runways.

The University of Illinois Airport was opened in 1944. This was the first fatal mishap in 14 years of university flight training at the field.

HOPE DIAMOND, OF DARK PAST, NOW BELONGS TO U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hope diamond, a beautiful gem with a dark past, belonged to the U.S. government today.

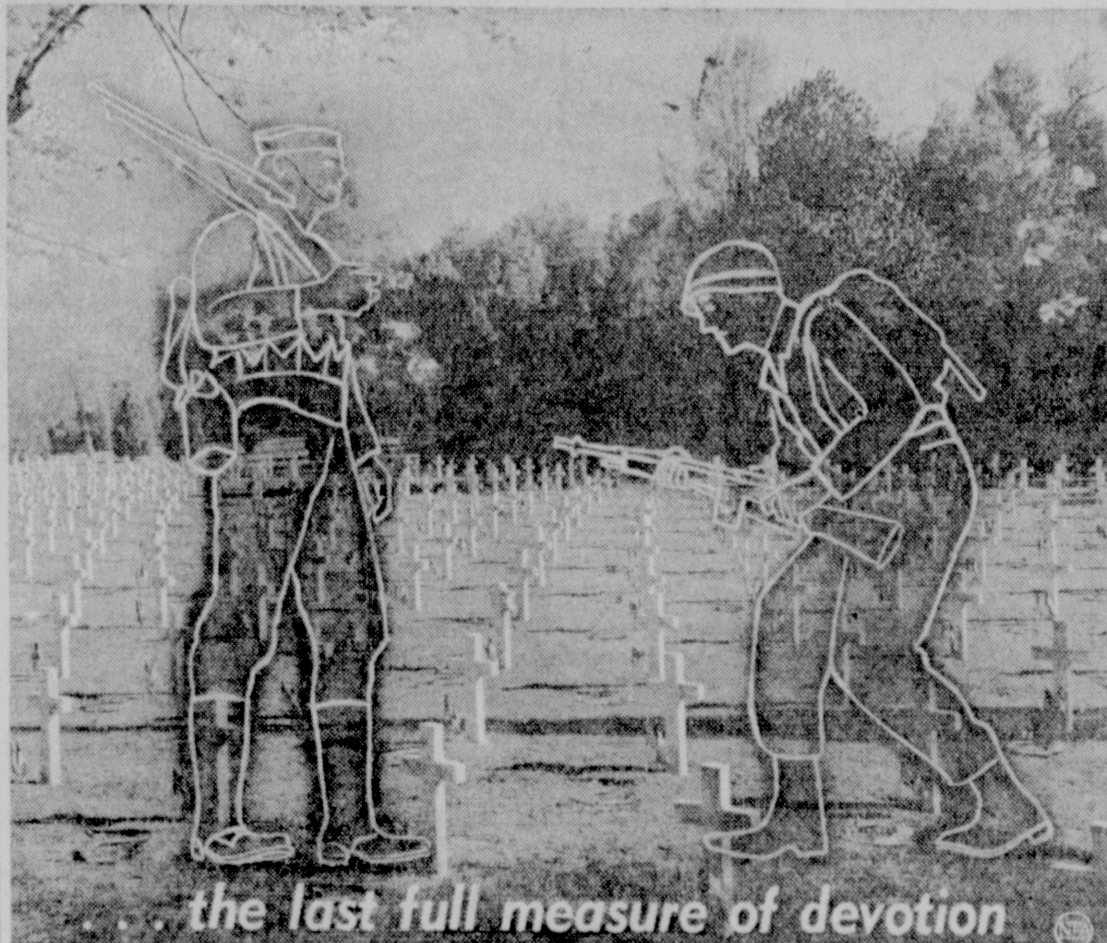

Officials of the Smithsonian Institution hoped to build a national jewel collection, with the 44-carat stone as a nucleus.

A gift of New York gem merchant Harry Winston, the diamond arrived here by registered mail, insured for one million dollars.

After the dark blue diamond was delivered to the Smithsonian by a postman under guard, it was formally presented by Mrs. Winston. The fabled Hope was accepted by Dr. Leonard Carmichael, secretary of the institution.

The Hope was smuggled out of India about 300 years ago. Since then, it has passed through many hands. A number of its owners died violently and it acquired a reputation of bringing ill fortune.

Colombo Delegates Seek Ways To Bring Better Life To Asia

SEATTLE (AP)—Visibly buoyed by a five-point program for progress handed them by President Eisenhower, 200 delegates to the Colombo Plan conference grappled today with the grim details of bringing about a better life for one third of the human race.

REA Sees Big Job Ahead Though Farm Folk Fewer

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Rural Electrification Administration sees a big job for itself for at least 20 more years.

The administration, created in the early 1930s, extends loans to rural cooperatives and other groups for rural power and telephone systems in areas not served by private utilities.

In an outlook report for 1959, the agency has this to say:

"The future of rural electrification can be summarized in three phrases: more people, increased consumption, heavier plants."

The report noted that a movement to the suburbs and to small tract garden and farm units—evidenced in all parts of the country—is increasing the demand for rural power service.

"More nonfarm families will move into rural areas," the report said. "Many will buy homes in new suburban housing developments. More retired people will buy country homes to escape the high living costs of the city. As highways are improved, more commuters will seek a rural environment for their families. And in many areas, the report boom will continue."

The report said these developments will encourage the establishment of more business and industrial units in rural areas.

Officials of the Smithsonian Institution hoped to build a national jewel collection, with the 44-carat stone as a nucleus.

A gift of New York gem merchant Harry Winston, the diamond arrived here by registered mail, insured for one million dollars.

Stratton Favors Cities Retaining More Sales Tax

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton said today he favors allowing cities to keep more of their city sales taxes than they do now.

At present the state deducts six percent for costs of collecting the tax but Stratton said that rate is "receptive to a suggestion for reduction."

In a speech prepared for the Illinois Municipal League's annual conference, Stratton renewed his opposition against a state income tax or state property tax.

The governor told the city officials to guard against a "trend toward centralization of government."

"This vexatious threat," he said, is doubly dangerous for it has the siren lure of presenting an apparently easy way to get things done—namely to let someone else do them.

"On that road lies extreme danger and I am certain that each of you shares my apprehension of that danger."

New Flareup Over Berlin Threatens

MOSCOW (AP)—Polish Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka left for home today, leaving behind a wave of speculation on the possibility of a new East-West flareup in Europe.

Observers here wondered if the final speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev during Gomulka's visit meant trouble over Berlin.

Gomulka and Khrushchev Monday night signed a communique, to be released simultaneously in Warsaw and Moscow Wednesday.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, reproduced in detail today Khrushchev's suggestion that the three Western powers get out of West Berlin. He gave no hint how far the Kremlin plans to push its claim that Western violations had eliminated all further use for the Potsdam Pact under which the city is now ruled.

The delegates—Asians in particular—expressed keen appreciation of Eisenhower's attention to detail. They hailed his five specific avenues toward improving living standards among South and Southeast Asians as encouraging take off points for some stern work ahead. Spokesmen for the six donor countries, 12 recipient nations and three colonies, noted these points in their responses to the President's speech.

1. Although progress continued this year in developing the countries which the plan was created to help, the rate of progress slowed generally. How much was not stated. The meetings on the ministerial level are closed.

2. Implicit in the whole Asian situation is the idea that time is short.

The President himself noted that millions of people went to bed hungry had never had enough to eat. Pakistan delegate Mohammed Ali underscored the idea with the warning that "it is futile to talk to hungry nations of economic theories or the blessings of the Democratic way of life. . . . In Asia, the peoples seek no rhyme nor reason as to why they should remain ill fed and ill clad when God's bounties have been bestowed for all mankind."

The Ceylonese delegate R. S. S. Dissanayake, noted that trade and balance of payments have fallen off, partly because of fear of an American depression.

The report noted that a movement to the suburbs and to small tract garden and farm units—evidenced in all parts of the country—is increasing the demand for rural power service.

"More nonfarm families will move into rural areas," the report said. "Many will buy homes in new suburban housing developments. More retired people will buy country homes to escape the high living costs of the city. As highways are improved, more commuters will seek a rural environment for their families. And in many areas, the report boom will continue."

The number of farms will diminish and families that give up farming will be reclassified as nonfarm. But those farms that remain will use more electricity for farm chores."

The administration said these trends seem certain to continue for at least 20 more years.

This picture of expanding rural power demands was painted at a time when some government leaders are proposing a reduced role for the REA. The Eisenhower administration has said that its future expansion should be based more heavily on private funds.

A communique issued at the conclusion of a closed-door meeting said statements were made by the heads of the American and Soviet delegations. The communique gave no indication of a meeting of minds.

The communique defined the conference as one "of experts for the study of possible measures which might be helpful in preventing surprise attack and for preparation of a report thereon to governments."

That definition corresponds to the Western view of the objectives.

The Western side glumly noted that Soviet Dep. Foreign Minister Vassili Kuznetsov, speaking at a public session, brought in a whole lot of cold war issues. The West regards such matters as entirely outside the scope of this conference.

The whole question of surprise attacks is so complex observers expect several days at least to be consumed in working out an agenda.

Government troops killed 344 rebels and possibly more while losing six killed and various wounded, Maj. Gen. Eulogio Canalis announced last night.

The military commander of the Santiago district said an accurate check of rebel losses was difficult because they "had a great number of wounded."

The army claimed that "rebel and Communist forces had been scattered but are still being hotly pursued" in the area around Santiago, capital of Oriente Province. Castro controls much of the Oriente countryside.

Rebel broadcasts have claimed more than 20 government troops killed in the bitter battle, which centered on the town of Alto Bonito.

Red China Warns May Resume Daily Shelling Of Quemoy

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Communists warned defenders of the Quemoy today that they might resume shelling every day, the Chinese Nationalists reported. Red shore guns have been silent for four even-numbered days.

The warning broadcast by loudspeakers on the mainland did not make clear whether the supply areas on Quemoy would be shelled on even days. Since Oct. 25 the Reds have shelled the supply areas only on odd-numbered days.

Since today was an odd day the Nationalists on the offshore islands waited until Wednesday to see what Red gunners would do. Nothing was heard from Radio Peiping.

Radio Peiping announced 17 days ago that the landing beaches and airstrip on the Quemoy would not be shelled on even days. It said the remainder of the offshore islands might be shelled on even days, however.

But in practice, Communist gunners have been inactive on the last four even days. The loudspeaker announcement could simply mean that areas other than the landing zones would now be bombed on even days once more.

Or it could mean that the Communist alternate-day policy was being abandoned completely in favor of shelling the landing zones daily. Nationalist officials tended to doubt this since Peiping radio had not spoken up.

It was not immediately clear whether the commander of the Fukien coastal area facing the Quemoy was personally responsible for the announcement carried by loudspeakers across the six miles of water separating Army from Quemoy.

The Nationalists took a wait-and-see attitude.

Communist bombardments have slackened off since the Nationalists counted 39,163 shells on Nov. 3. There has been no shelling at all during the last four even-numbered days, although by Communist ground rules only the supply landing area and airfield on Quemoy were supposed to be immune from bombardment on those days.

Meanwhile, a U.S. Defense Department team toured Formosa studying how effectively American military aid is being used.

The team of 11 officials is headed by Charles H. Shuff, deputy assistant secretary of defense for the U.S. military assistance program.

Vursell Appears To Have Lost Bid For Re-Election

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP)—Charles W. Vursell, veteran Illinois Republican Representative in Congress, appears to have lost his bid for re-election to his ninth consecutive term.

George E. Shipley, 31-year-old Democratic Sheriff of Richland County, edged to a 176-vote lead in nearly complete canvassing of 120,000 ballots in the 23rd Congressional District.

Shipley's apparent victory in the nation's closest congressional race would give the Democrats 232 seats in the House, against 153 Republicans.

Remains of the canvass of votes in last Tuesday's election were announced Monday.

They showed Vursell, 77-year-old former Salem newspaper publisher, with 64,923 and Shipley with 65,099, with official figures available from 14 of the district's 15 counties.

Vursell, however, said he was (Continued on Page Seven)

Finds Out 'What It's Like To Have All That Money'

DENVER (AP)—Boyd Lester Johnston, 25, of Ottawa, Canada, wanted for embezzling $260,000 from an Ottawa bank, was arrested at a night club here Monday night and an estimated $200,000 of the loot was recovered, police said today.

Johnston, an employee of the Imperial Bank of Canada, told detectives Art Eslerling and Gene Alter in an oral statement he took the money because "I wondered what it would be like to have all that money. Now I know."

A $10,000 reward circular from Ottawa authorities led to Johnston's arrest. A police informant calling police Monday night told them a man fitting Johnston's description had been drinking champagne at the club for several hours.

Estimate of the amount recovered was made by Johnston who "guessed" he had spent about $60,000 in a 16-day spree in Los Angeles, Twin Falls, Idaho, and here. Johnston was placed in a city jail cell without charge.

Says Army Plans To Create New Planet

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The Army plans to shoot a rocket right at the moon and create a man-made planet, Dr. Werner von Braun said today.

And the German-born rocket genius predicts "it has a use in two chances of doing just that."

The rocket would never come back.

It would escape from the earth's gravity and be captured by the sun's gravity. Falling into an orbit around the sun, it would become a 30-pound baby planet, revolving around the sun much like the Earth, Mars and Jupiter.

The first attempt probably will be made in the first week of December.

It will be the first of two moon-probe shots by the Army.

The Air Force has so far launched three probes. One soared about 79,000 miles of the 239,000 to the moon in October, then was tugged back by earth's gravity to burn up in our atmosphere.

The Army plans to shoot its probe at such high speed that it will go past the moon and forever escape from the earth. It might pass within 10 to 50 thousand miles of the moon.

It would soar millions of miles beyond earth and the moon until the sun's gravity pulled it into some yet unpredictable orbit around the sun.

Some details of the Army moon-probe plan became known here informally at a space symposium attended by 700 space and medical scientists. The symposium was sponsored by the Air Force's School of Aviation Medicine and arranged by Southwest Research Institute.

The Air Force probes were designed and given some control—to swing them around the moon once, or into a steady orbit around the moon, or near the moon and then home again.

The Army plan is in a large sense much less difficult.

The Real De Gaulle

Premier Charles de Gaulle has become one of the most interesting political figures of the mid-20th century.

Had he never returned to the active scene, perhaps the world would have remembered him as he was portrayed by Sir Winston Churchill and others who worked with him in World War II: austere, unbending, humorless, seemingly possessed with delusions of personal grandeur, demanding for France a voice and prominence beyond the limits of its real power.

But in the months since he took office in crisis last June, De Gaulle has gone far to establish a totally new image of himself. Historians looking back upon this era may well decide that this was the correct image all along, that it was simply obscured by the limitations of his position in World War II.

The general today is exhibiting qualities of leadership and statesmanship the like of which France has not seen in a generation or two. Indeed, many think he is showing a good deal more than are the leaders of countries which have been assailing French weaknesses for years.

De Gaulle first of all has demonstrated a highly inventive political imagination at a time and in situations where the characteristic is very solely needed. He is positive, productive, and aggressive. He is a man with ideas.

And he is a man with the confidence, the sheer nerve to carry them out, or at least to give them a hard try. His bold proposal to meet with Algerian rebel leaders in Paris is a sample. Whether this comes off or not, it represented a tremendous willingness to take the daring step to seek a solution of an urgent and enduring problem.

Through all his efforts, De Gaulle has shown a consistent breadth of outlook, a readiness to scan all viewpoints and all possibilities, that must surely surprise those who had him marked down as narrow, arrogant, and intolerant of positions other than his own.

Furthermore, to the French he has become much more than just the "man on horseback," the rigid symbol to whom they turned in desperate plight. They see him now as a human being they can trust, with whom they find remarkable personal dignity, for all that he still stands an aloof figure.

De Gaulle still is the symbol and final repository of French hopes. But he is also, by some odd twist, a warm friend today, a Frenchman like other Frenchmen. And by the day he is teaching his countrymen a long overdue lesson in what it means to have genuine leadership.

Time Cures All Cliches

Debunking popular sayings can be an amusing pastime. Who hasn't at one time or another found that the "still water" guy he thought ran deep was really a pretty shallow person?

Or discovered that haste at the right time isn't so wasteful after all?

Or learned that a stagnant stone may get pretty mossy, but that it's not necessarily admirable?

Or seen an old dog come up with a pretty good new trick?

Even science has occasionally taken a hand. For example, making a reasonable facsimile of a silk purse out of a sow's ear just to disprove the old bro-mide.

But some of the best debunking just happens naturally. A case in point: Officials of the last remaining coal mine in Newcastle, England, report that the colliery's veins are running out after 450 years of operation. It will soon be necessary to carry coals to Newcastle.

In Hollywood

By ROB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Do all working girls want to get married?

Yes, says Rona Jaffe, successful chronicler of the toiling ladies. She's the 26-year-old onetime office worker who wrote "The Best of Everything" and sold it to films for $100,000. It's her first novel, and it's bobbing along nicely in the middle of the top 10 sellers.

Rona, an attractive girl who speaks in tones of her native New York, is here to promote the book and take a glance at the film script. She hedged a bit on her all-working-girls-wanna-get-married thesis with three exceptions:

"Girls who are very shy, who fear that married life will interfere with pursuit of their profession or who are disillusioned by too many unhappy romances."

But these are a minor segment of the great feminine working mass, she claimed. The others want a man, period.

That's the theme of her book, and the reviewers state that it contains some rather racy passages. I asked how this affected her personal life.

"My parents?" she replied. "Yes, I was afraid they'd be shocked. They didn't read the book until it was published; I gave them the first and second copies. Fortunately, they liked it.

"My dates? I feared I would be getting many who figured I wrote an easy mark because I wrote a sexy novel. I was relieved to find that most of my dates were so impressed to be out with a novelist that they didn't get fresh at all."

"My book is the result of working four years in an office myself and interviewing a hundred working girls. I discovered there were five basic types of working girls in New York, so I wrote a story about five girls."

Her types:

1. The well-to-do girl who works out of boredom.

2. The out-of-town girl who seeks the glamor life of an actress but fails.

3. The would-be actress who must work part-time to live.

4. The engaged girl earning enough to buy furniture, etc.

5. The divorced mother who must work to support her child.

All are seeking marriage, said Miss Jaffe, and that brought up a natural question: What about her? "I'm always asked that," she smiled. "The answer is that I haven't found the right man yet."

More Than Filling Them

BY JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Press photographers figure that they took enough pictures of President Eisenhower on his recent campaign tour to paper every wall in the White House. But what's even more amazing to them is that Ike eagerly posed for every shot.

In fact, they report that he even seemed disappointed when each of the numerous picture-taking sessions came to an end. For instance, while posing for a series of hand-shaking shots with several New York congressmen, Ike was startled when the photos suddenly thanked him for his cooperation and started to leave the room.

"Who's next?" the President hollered.

"There's no more candidates here," one of the cameramen answered. "If you want to be photographed again, you'll have to shake hands with one of us."

To everybody's surprise, that's just what Ike did.

Immediately after wolfing down several helpings of Tennessee ham, imported herring, baked apples, French fried potatoes and scrambled eggs at a recent breakfast party, Hollywood star Glenn Ford rushed to the Pentagon for a noon appointment with Navy Secretary Thomas Gates. Ford was in town to promote his new movie about submarines.

When the actor arrived at the Pentagon, he was startled to learn that Gates planned to honor him with a surprise four-course luncheon.

"I thought that the secretary just wanted to chat," Ford declared. "Otherwise, I would have started fasting three days ago."

Army Missile boss Gen. John B. Medaris emphasized for five minutes at a press conference that he was not going to let reporters get him involved in any discussion that might be linked to service rivalry.

Everything went according to plan until a reporter asked him to explain a technical term that kept popping up in his statements.

"Does that have anything to do with wings?" the newsmen asked.

"Sir," the general replied, "that's one word I try my best never to use."

At a recent cocktail party, the host asked a new French embassy official how he liked American champagne.

"Well," the diplomat replied, "it tastes like the liquor that those shimmoozers are supposed to make. You know what I mean—Gutrot."

ed recently by officials of the Viet Nam Embassy to celebrate their country's National Day. An unofficial count of the horde of guests and party-crashers who packed the embassy's colorful rooms came to about 700.

Vietnamese diplomats frankly admit that they don't know just what attracted such a large crowd. In fact, they explain that some of the guests started arriving as early as an hour early.

The wife of a government official, who admits arriving 30 minutes early herself, explains the mystery this way: "Whenever a woman has a chance to get out of cooking Sunday dinner, she's going to take it."

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's cold comfort for Vice President Nixon to know that a score of Republican state chairmen consider him at this minute the No. 1 boy for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960.

Although Nelson Rockefeller suddenly became his rival — by winning the New York governorship last Tuesday — 20 out of 38 chairmen queried by The Associated Press more or less named Nixon as their choice.

That's now. And it's no wonder. They're indebted to him for all the campaigning he did for them, himself and the party in every election since, and including, 1952.

But there's nothing sentimental about a political convention. By 1960 — if Rockefeller makes a decent record in New York and looks like a better bet — the delegates will thank Nixon and pick Rockefeller.

Nobody has to tell Nixon this. He's not only a practical politician, he's a tough one. For proof, the kind of attacks he's made on the Democrats over the years.

Nixon is almost 46. Rockefeller is 30. Until Tuesday Nixon seemed to have the field to himself. Now he may lie awake nights, planning.

There's no reason to think the Republicans can win in 1960 — after what has happened to them in the past three congressional elections — unless one or both of two things happen:

1. The Democrats, running Congress, split wide open or make a mess of legislation that is popular and needed.

2. The dazed and shattered Republicans can find a line that wins favor. They have no such line now. Where can they get it?

Hardly from President Eisenhower. He was provided meager leadership for the party, either because he doesn't know how to inspire it or because the party has been blind to his form of "modern Republicanism."

The task of leadership, it would seem, falls on Nixon. But he, despite his campaigning, couldn't help the Republicans escape a massacre in his own state of California.

For six years he has remained pretty much within the shadow of Eisenhower. In that time he has not managed to protect himself, or his thinking, in such a way that either has become a rallying symbol for the Republicans.

What can he do? Turn to the right? That's a bleak road. The right wing Republicans fell Tuesday like ducks on the opening day of the hunting season.

If he tries to follow a very liberal line — in the belief that is the contemporary and therefore popular thing to do — he'll lose the support of the right wing and its financial angels.

Rockefeller is expected to follow a fairly liberal line. Nixon, if he sounds too much like Rockefeller, may be accused of trying to imitate him.

Yet, Nixon has to get across to Republicans and voters an image of himself that both will want. These next two years won't be easy for a man as ambitious as Nixon.

Rockefeller is expected to follow a fairly liberal line. Nixon, if he sounds too much like Rockefeller, may be accused of trying to imitate him.

Service Stations To Be Inspected, Sewer Chairman Announces

Alderman Clarence Belzer, chairman of the sewer committee, has asked the cooperation of all service station operators in cleaning wash rack areas and catch basins as a preventative against clogging the city's sewers.

At last night's council meeting Belzer said the city will give service stations two weeks in which to get their premises into shape, after which the plumbing inspector will make a tour of inspection.

A chunk of grease three feet long was fished out of a sewer in the downtown section yesterday as employees of the department continued to unclog the underground sanitary system. Where the material originated is a debatable question, but Mayor DuBois and the council were firm in insisting that the release of this kind of material in the sewers must be halted. A considerable amount of loose gravel also has been found in the sewers. Alderman Belzer said work is continuing on West State street where loose bricks and other debris have been removed through the manholes.

Renew Contract For Gas
One of the first actions at the meeting was the reading of a renewal contract between the city and Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, for gas with which to operate motors at the municipal power plant. The agreement covering a three year period, dating from Dec. 20, 1958, was presented by Alderman Sims, chairman of the light committee, and read by Acting City Attorney Guy Winks.

An increase from 37 1/2 cents to 40 cents per MCF is contained in the agreement. The mayor and clerk were authorized to enter into the pact by unanimous vote after motions by Aldermen Sims and Belzer.

Alderman Sims read a letter from Attorney Orville Foreman, special counsel for the light plant expansion project, describing legal procedure last Wednesday in the injunction suit brought by the Illinois Power Co. against the City of Jacksonville, seeking to enjoin it from operating outside the corporation boundaries and building a highline to Springfield.

Lease of the Baldwin house on Lake Jacksonville to Ernest Birdsell at a consideration of $240 for one year was approved by Alderman Goodey, seconded by Alderman Johnson. The family has occupied the premises previously and this was a renewal of the lease.

To Draft Reply
Reporting for the water committee, Alderman Rowe said that a reply to the proposal of the Village of South Jacksonville for purchase of water and sewer service under a new contract will be drafted during the coming week. Rowe said the water and sewer committees will meet next Monday evening before the council session to consider the final draft of the proposed contract, which will then be submitted to the council for approval.

Withee Resigns From Board
Resignation of Ralph Withee as a member of the Jacksonville Cemetery Board was announced by Mayor DuBois. Mr. Withee has served a number of years. Mayor DuBois announced the appointment of O. L. Gossett, 871 Hardin avenue, to fill the vacancy, the appointment being confirmed by vote after motions by Aldermen Belzer and Burchett.

The mayor called attention of councilmen to the convention of the Illinois Municipal League now in session at Springfield. The invocation at last night's meeting was offered by Rev. Fines Main, pastor of the West Jacksonville Methodist church.

Absent from the meeting were Aldermen DeFries and Souza.

WINCHESTER SENDS 5 TO CONFERENCE

Five students from Winchester High School attended the two day conference Sunday and Monday in Jacksonville sponsored by the Council for Exceptional Children for high school students interested in the field of special education teaching. Boys and girls stayed in the city Sunday night and sessions ended Monday afternoon. Thirty minute talks, demonstrations, social gatherings and entertainment crowded a memorable two days for the teenagers. Over one hundred visited special education classes in the Jacksonville Public Schools, Illinois School for Deaf and Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School. Seen above, seated, l-r, Sandra Pile, Judi Dolen, Karen Wilson. The boys are Lewis Pate, left, and Henry Carriger.

Winchester Parents Plan School Visit Thursday

By Nancy Hainsfurther
(Winchester Correspondent)
(Telephone Pioneer 2-5320)

WINCHESTER — Parents will don their thinking caps and attend the High School Open House Thursday night, Nov. 13, when classes, an assembly program, a pep rally, a snack in the lunchroom, and other activities that make a school day will be featured for their enlightenment and entertainment. This will be a highlight of American Education Week which is being celebrated throughout the United States this week.

Upon entering the school at 7:30 p.m. parents will register for the same courses as their children study during the day or whatever courses they prefer and then enter the auditorium for a short briefing on the evening's program. Each class will meet for approximately seven minutes in which time the parent and teacher will have an opportunity to know one another briefly and the parent will get a glimpse of the subject taught. The ringing of the bells noting the time to rush to another class will give the parents an idea of the rapid pace their high school student goes at during the day.

Midway through the evening a snack of coffee and cookies will be served in the cafeteria where daily menus will be on view. After the recuperation spell the "students" will continue to their classes. Along the corridors will be posters entitled "Did You Know" which will give information concerning the school that is little known. Cheerleaders and the high school band will entertain the guests at a Pep Rally following the class periods. This will enable parents to have an idea of how the weekly pep rally is conducted. The program for the evening is scheduled to end at approximately 9:30 p.m.

Russell Wilson, principal, wishes to remind the community that the school is open for their inspection at any time and they are invited to drop in at any time, but during this week this special program has been planned for their enjoyment.

At the grade school parents are invited to drop in any time on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to meet their child's teacher and get a glimpse into the daily routine of the classroom. Some of the rooms have prepared special programs to entertain the parents.

Five at CEC Conference
Sandra Pile, Judi Dolen, Karen Wilson, Henry Carriger, and Lewis Pate were in Jacksonville Sunday afternoon and Monday, Nov. 9 and 10, to attend the Council for Exceptional Children. This is the first meeting of its kind to be held on a high school pupil level and an active interest was shown as representatives of thirteen schools in seven counties registered at the Jonathan Turner Junior High School Sunday afternoon.

Teachers, educators, and authorities in the field of special education met with the students and also those of the public who attended the sessions. The program had breaks every 30 minutes which kept the students' interest keen and they were alert to hear addresses by such prominent people as Louis Rodenberg, supervisor of the braille print shop at Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School; Herbert Kober, director of division of Service for Crippled Children at the University of Illinois; Herbert Goldstein, Institute of Research on Exceptional Children at the University of Illinois, and others.

The five representatives of Winchester High School are members of the Future Teachers Association whose advisor is Mrs. Loretta Glossop. Mrs. Glossop accompanied the group to Jacksonville Sunday.

Entertainment was provided by various groups of exceptional children during the dinner hours, films were shown, and a gymnastic exhibition preceded the adjournment at 2:30 Monday afternoon.

Party Honors Mr. Wilson
Cheerleaders and Mrs. Tom Springer surprised Clarence Wilson, principal, Friday afternoon with a birthday party complete with cake and trimmings following the pep rally.

The cake was decorated as a football field, with coconut colored green for grass, football goal posts and pipe cleaners depicting the squad members placed between the goal posts. The cheerleading squad baked cupcakes for each student and the entire group gathered at the Pep Rally celebrated the occasion.

4-H Club Wins Trophy 3rd Year
The Winchester Workers, the Winchester 4-H club, was awarded the Club of the Year trophy Thursday evening, Nov. 6, at the Winchester High School Auditorium when the annual awards for outstanding club and club members were presented.

With the winning of the club trophy for the third consecutive year, the Winchester Workers are entitled to keep the trophy. By scoring 100% in each field the group was eligible for the award. At a later date a raffle will be received and this will in turn be turned over to the County 4-H Federation. Mrs. Russell Norman and Mrs. Richard L. Coultas are the leaders of the Winchester Workers.

The name of the Peaceful Prairie Club will be placed on a plaque to be hung in the Farm Bureau office to show they were awarded the second highest club honor. Mrs. William Anders of Manchester is the leader of this group.

Top girls in the 4-H county organization are Judy Hurrelbrink and Janet Hurrelbrink. These girls, along with two others, were awarded the home economics award. The two others are Jane Ehler and Lina Norman. Judy Hurrelbrink, Jane Ehler, Sylvia Dahlhaus, and Kay Lawson were named as the outstanding girls in the county organization.

Janet Ehler and Judy Dolen will represent the local 4-H organization at the Junior Leadership Camp.

Fire Call
Volunteer firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Rowena Peak about one o'clock Monday afternoon but found only smoke damage in the house. No fire was discovered.

David Goodell Listed In College Who's Who
David Goodell, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ray Goodell, is listed in the year's "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." To receive such an honor a student is chosen on his leadership qualifications, scholarship, campus activities, contribution to college life, and on his possibilities in the future.

David, who is a history major, attends Southwestern College in Winfield, Kan., where he is active in the college band, English club, and serves on the Religious Life Council, Methodist Student Movement, faculty-student library committee, and is on the staff of the college yearbook, Mound Builder.

Last year David was one of three selected to participate in a semester program at the American University in Washington, D.C., which was open to history majors.

The honored student plans to graduate in the spring with a degree in American History.

How the Illinois Power Company rate increase will affect you

Illinois Power Company has been granted a rate increase following public hearings and extensive study by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The rate increase was granted to assure continued high standards of service to the people in this area . . . to continue to pay fair wages to Illinois Power Company employees . . . and to pay a fair rate of return to our investors so that we can continue to attract the investment capital necessary to build the new facilities needed to meet our customers' expanding use of electricity.

The new rates were made necessary by the higher cost of everything we use in making and distributing electricity. It is only the second general rate increase in the history of the Company since 1923.

The electricity you use on and after November 10, will be billed at the new rate. If you have any questions concerning your bill, please call the nearest Illinois Power Company office. We will be happy to explain it to you.

Camera Club Has Salon Showing At Strawn Art Home

Members of the Jacksonville Camera Club were guests of the Art Association at an informal social hour Sunday afternoon. This marked the opening of their Annual Salon which continues through November 15.

Black and white prints and color slides will be on exhibit at the David Strawn Art Gallery throughout the week. An innovation this year will be the judging of entries by the public. When guests register at the desk, they will be handed a score sheet on which they can state their preference for the first five places, both in black and white and in color.

The Salon will be open in the afternoon from 4 to 5 through the courtesy of the Art Association, and from 7 to 9 in the evenings, with club members acting as hosts or hostesses.

Local camera fans will be interested to know that the annual award-winning CICA print in black and white will be on display. Out of 368 entries, this one was chosen as "The Print of the Show." It is titled, "Man of Taos," submitted by William Harshman, a local camera club member.

In addition to the award-winning print, color slides which were accepted by CICA convention will be among the slides on display.

SURPRISE COUPLE PLANNING FLORIDA WINTER VACATION

HILLVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. George Hunnicutt were pleasantly surprised last Thursday when neighbors gathered with well-filled baskets to serve supper in their honor before leaving for Florida November 17, to spend the winter. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schutz, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Schutz, Mrs. Ruby Schutz, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harmon, Mrs. Maxine Ruemmler, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMellin and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powell.

Thanksgiving dinner was held last Sunday for the same couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hunnicutt.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Bridgewater, Sr., Carrollton; Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powell and Mrs. Goldie Hunnicutt, Hillview.

Gold was discovered in California in 1848, nine days before Mexico ceded the territory to the United States.

4-H ALUMNUS OF 1958

O. L. Westmorland, manager of the Myers store in Jacksonville, was enrolled in the ranks of 4-H Alumni Saturday morning when he received the award offered by the Morgan County 4-H Federation. It was presented by Assistant Farm Adviser Bob Hayward, Jr., left.

Westmorland was a 4-H member in Monroe county, Ind., and had a pig project some 35 years ago. He has been an enthusiastic supporter of 4-H Club work ever since.

"This is the first time I have ever won a prize for 4-H work," he exclaimed. "And I'm very pleased and proud."

Mrs. Overton Host To Glasgow Home Bureau

GLASGOW — The Glasgow Home Bureau met in the home of Mrs. W. E. Overton Thursday afternoon at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Oma Edwards, vice chairman, presided at the meeting. The pledge to the flag was given followed by the song of the month, "Red Wing."

Roll call, "a bulb or plant exchange" was answered by eight members. The major lesson, "United Nations," was given by the home adviser, Miss Hazel Graves. The selected subject, "Etiquette, Home and Public," was presented by Mrs. Henry Boester.

Mrs. Clarence Wilson was in charge of recreation. Prizes were won by Mrs. Everette Hester and Mrs. Henry Boester.

On Friday, Oct. 24, the unit attended the annual Morgan-Scott Home Bureau meeting at the Centenary Methodist church in Jacksonville. Those receiving roses for having attended all meetings the past year were: Mrs. Clarence Adams, Mrs. Henry Boester, Mrs. Everette Hester, Mrs. Orval Evans, Mrs. Charles Jones and Mrs. Charles Roper.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 20, at 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. Henry Boester. The major lesson, "Yeast Bread Variations," will be given by Mrs. W. E. Overton and Mrs. Charles Roper. The selected subject, "Care of Houseplants," by Mrs. Orval Evans.

Glasgow Revival In Second Week
The revival meetings at the Glasgow Baptist church are in their second week of nightly meetings. Rev. Charles Everly, pastor of the church, will deliver the spiritual messages each evening.

Leroy Hedricks of Jacksonville is the song evangelist and in full charge of the singing. Delegations from surrounding towns have been in attendance from Alsey, Winchester, Jacksonville and Manchester. Special musical numbers each and every evening have been enjoyed.

Everyone is welcome each evening at 7:30 p.m. this week and services to end Sunday night, Nov. 16.

Personals
Mrs. Harold McEvers returned home Saturday from Passavant Hospital in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Reamey Newlin returned home Saturday from Passavant Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ward of Florissant, Mo., were Friday and Saturday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kunzeman Sr. of Meredosia and Mr. and Mrs. William Nienhiser of Chapin were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kunzeman Jr., and family.

Mrs. James McClure, Sondra and Jimmie attended a Sunday dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Sandman in Winchester honoring the birthday of Richard Hayes.

Teddy Steelman received baptismal rites Sunday morning, Nov. 2 in the Winchester Baptist church along with other candidates with Rev. William Sealock conducting the baptismal services. Teddy is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Steelman. Attending the morning worship services from Glasgow were Mr. and Mrs. Steelman and son, Tommy, Miss Sandra Cowper and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Haney and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Penoe of Alsey.

Pvt. Charles McEvers, with an airborne division, left Friday from St. Louis for Ft. Lewis, Wash., and from there for Korea. He was taken to St. Louis by his parents and family, to Lambert Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Steelman, sons Tommy and Teddy attended a family supper on Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buel Steelman of Roodhouse. The occasion honored the birthdays of the family occurring in November.

Mrs. Orval Evans was hostess to her pinocle club on Friday afternoon with all members attending.

Estelle Cowper accompanied by Miss Sandra Cowper attended the Fuller Brush Co. meeting Thursday evening held at the Lincoln Douglas Hotel in Quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Steelman and sons, Tommy and Teddy, were Saturday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Haney. The occasion honored Teddy Steelman on his 13th birthday.

Seize 23 Cuban Rebels Loading Plane In U.S.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—An arms-laden plane and 23 men identified as Cuban rebels or sympathizers were seized Monday amid gunfire that followed a police swoop on loading operations at an abandoned airfield. Machine gun fire from federal and local officers flattened tires of an automobile in which five of the men tried to flee. They surrendered, unhurt. One other man got away on foot.

U. S. Border Patrol officer Robert W. Gilbert said the 22 captives were booked on charges of violating the Neutrality Act. Gilbert said that rifles, submachine guns, ammunition and field equipment in packages marked "Exel" were loaded from 10 automobiles onto the two-engine Lockheed Lodestar plane—U. S. registered—which flew onto the former Prospect Airfield half an hour earlier.

Cuba's armed rebellion is headed by Fidel Castro whose headquarters are in the island republic's easternmost Oriente Province. Officers said the plane was almost fully loaded when they swarmed onto the field and made the arrests. Gilbert said the plane was believed to have flown here from Tampa. Ownership was not at once determined. Federal officials had been watching the field—now a prospective industrial site—because of previous Cuban rebel activity in this area. Local authorities joined them when alerted by a telephone call from a householder who saw the plane land about 7 p. m.

Douglas Says Some Demos Must Liberalize Views

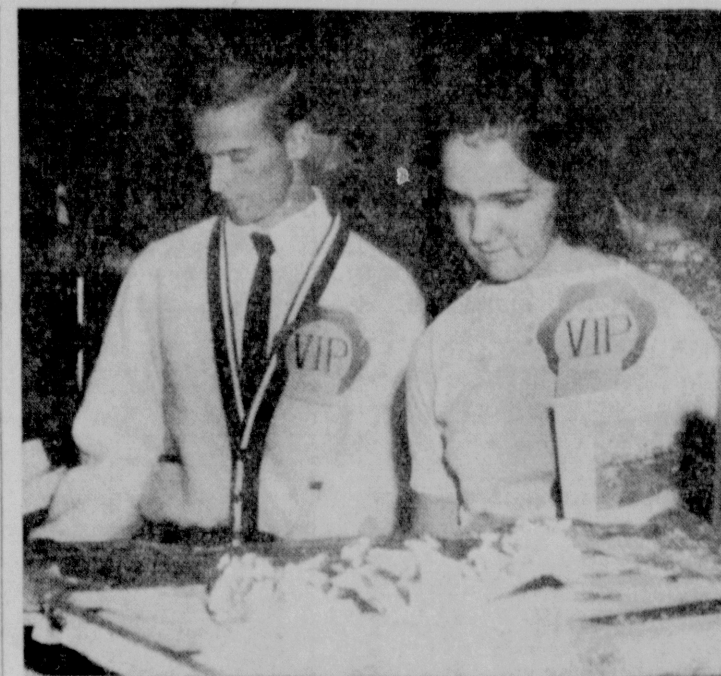

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.) said Monday the Democratic congressional landslide in last Tuesday's election was not a vote of confidence in the national Democratic Party. Instead, said Douglas, it was a no-confidence vote in the Republican leadership. Democrats will have to "prove their abilities," Douglas told a University of Nebraska student audience. For one thing, he declared, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn and Lyndon Johnson, the Democrats' leader in the Senate, are going to have to liberalize their economic views. Douglas called the outcome of the election an indication the nation is moving in the direction of liberalism.

CAPTURED AFTER HOLDUP—Walter Molenkamp, 19, Grand Rapids, Mich., factory worker who turned holdup man in his home town and chartered a plane to make his getaway, is shown at police station in Chicago after his capture. He had robbed a filling station of $1,400 then hired the plane. Plane's pilot, Robert C. Gable, was unaware his passenger was a fugitive, and watched aghast as police made the capture when plane landed at Chicago.

14 Schools Send Pupils To City For Conference

Last minute registration for the two day student conference for high school pupils Sunday and Monday, Nov. 9 and 10, in Jacksonville listed only 13 schools and seven counties. One more school and another county joined the group when sessions opened Sunday afternoon at Jonathan Turner Junior High. The student-level conference was sponsored by South Central Chapter (Jacksonville) of Council for Exceptional Children to interest high school students in further schooling in the field of special education.

ANTHRACITE MINERS TO SCRAP CONTRACT
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John L. Lewis was reported Monday to have served notice his United Mine Workers will scrap their contract with the anthracite industry effective Jan. 1.

Reliable sources said the notice was served Oct. 31. A 60-day notice of termination is required under the hard coal contract.

Lewis has had informal discussions looking toward a new soft coal contract but so far is known has not served formal termination notice to bituminous or soft coal mine owners.

Lewis' purpose in ending the hard coal pact is believed aimed at improving the status of the anthracite welfare fund.

Johnson Accepts Mission To U.N. On Space Control

SEATTLE (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said Monday night Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas has accepted a mission to the United Nations to support the United States effort to achieve the peaceful control of outer space.

Dulles said in a statement that "In order to make clear to the world how much all Americans agree on the importance of this subject and in view of the deep congressional interest in it, I have with the President's approval asked Sen. Johnson to go to the General Assembly to make a statement during the debate." He said that he was pleased to announce that Johnson has accepted the assignment.

No date has yet been set for consideration of the outer space question but it is expected to come before the General Assembly's Political Committee within a matter of days.

Johnson is chairman of the Senate Space and Aeronautics Committee created last year.

The United States has made the first move in the UN to bring the problem of peaceful control of outer space under its jurisdiction.

The Dulles appointment of Johnson appeared to be the administration's first move since last week's election in carrying out a stronger bipartisan policy in announcing the appointment of Johnson. Dulles, however, recalled is that the U. S. delegation to the UN General Assembly "is, as always, bipartisan."

Both Sens. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) and Mansfield (D-Mont.) are at present on the U. S. delegation.

11 REBEKAHS FROM WHITE HALL ATTEND DISTRICT MEETING

WHITE HALL—Eleven members of Adams Rebekah Lodge 375 attended the district meeting held at Jerseyville on Wednesday night.

Betty Gill of Jerseyville was installed as district president and a social hour with refreshments followed the installation.

Attending from here were Lucy Linker, Mae DeShazer, Nina DeShazer, Edith Frye, Nadine Cammer, Leona Conrod, Neva Lyons, Lona Bertram, Ada Brannan, Alma Dugger and Ruth Barnard.

In this jet age it is interesting to note that the First Hague Peace Conference in 1899 prohibited for five years the use of "projectiles thrown from balloons."

Roodhouse Firemen Head Muscular Dystrophy Drive

ROODHOUSE—In charge of the Muscular Dystrophy drive for funds this year for this area are members of the volunteer fire department. Fire Chief Richard Hopkins and his assistant, Jay Barnett, have distributed coin containers to the business houses throughout the city. On Thursday evening all the members will meet at the city hall for a combined business meeting and chicken dinner. At that time plans will be made for the month-long campaign for raising the funds.

Fellowship Supper
 The November fellowship supper will be held in the First Baptist church Wednesday night, beginning at 6:45. The monthly business session will follow at eight o'clock.

Receives Appointment
 James Jones, senior vice commander of Roodhouse Post 373, American Legion, has been notified by the Illinois Legion offices of his appointment as a member of the Legion's Illinois Veterans' Housing Committee.

Seek Blood Donors
 The Rotary Club will canvass the Roodhouse area for blood donors to report at the White Hall Methodist church from noon until 6 p. m. on Friday. The quota for this visit of the bloodmobile to the Roodhouse-White Hall area is 225 pints.

Tenth Birthday

Chapin FHA Sees Demonstration Of Small Appliances

The Chapin Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was entertained recently with a demonstration of small electric appliances by Mrs. Faith Ketzinger, the Illinois Power Company Home Economist. The demonstration which showed such small appliances as an electric fry pan, roaster, sauce pan, blender and coffee maker, was given in connection with the Seventeen Recipe contest. Mrs. Ketzinger's recipes used Moon Magic as her theme. She demonstrated Moon Magic Rarebit, Orbit apples and Satellite salad which were afterwards eaten by the club.

Later in the week the girls helped the Chapin Town and Country Club solicit the Chapin community for the United Fund campaign. Those girls participating were Sandra Aufdenkamp, Carol Anderson, Carolyn Criss, Prudie Ginder, Phyllis Wilder, Carolyn Lael, Grace Patton, Maxine Lael, Darlene Thompson, Laura Mueller and Jackie Shepard.

On Halloween night the girls again were soliciting, this time for U. N. E. S. C. O. Twenty-five girls participated and collected $15.30. Early this week Mr. Richard L. Curtis from the Farmer's State Bank and Trust Company, Jacksonville, appeared before a special assembly to present the Illinois Bankers award to the Chapin F.H.A. chapter as the outstanding chapter in Section 7, 1957-1958. Miss Janet Schumacher, president, accepted the plaque from Mr. Curtis, who is vice president of the Cass-Morgan-Scott-Schuyler County Bankers Association.

General Pershing suggested in 1920 that the U. S. Army Infantry be motorized and airborne. It wasn't until 1940 that these ideas were carried out.

GEE!

I have a Savings Account at Farmers

The enthusiasm this youngster shows for a savings account is understandable. This savings account means he has money in the bank, that his parents have already given thought to his college education, and he has learned that a savings account can help make down payments on big purchases.

Why don't you get that wonderful feeling of money in the bank? Open a savings account at FARMERS, add to it regularly, and watch your savings grow.

Sights Wreckage; May Be That Of Missing Plane

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—The Lisbon Airport control tower said an English plane hunting a missing flying boat had reported sighting the remains of an unidentified plane.

The remains were located between 35 and 40 miles southeast of the spot where the missing Portuguese plane was believed to have made an emergency landing Sunday with 36 persons aboard. Six were Americans.

Shipping was alerted and a Portuguese patrol vessel which was two hours' voyage away made for the spot at once. Other ships also were on their way.

8,000 Chrysler Workers Strike; Two Plants Close

DETROIT (AP)—Approximately 8,000 Chrysler Corp. workers and engineers struck at 10 a.m. today after all-night negotiations failed to produce a new contract. Within an hour and a half, two assembly plants were closed.

But the United Auto Workers Union, which represents the 8,000 strikers out of Chrysler's 30,000 white-collar workers, quickly acted in hopes of minimizing strike effects on its 70,000 production-worker members.

The strikers threw picket lines around 34 Chrysler plants, 30 of them in the Detroit area. Others are in Evansville, Ind.; Los Angeles; Newark, Del.; Atlanta; Kansas City, Kan.; and Marysville, Mich.

Chrysler and the UAW reached agreement five weeks ago on a new three-year contract for production workers, but settlement on demands of three locals representing office workers and engineers was left hanging.

Dodge assembly operations in suburban Hamtramck were shut at 11 a.m. and 3,500 production workers sent home. Chrysler said new car drivers refused to drive through pickets between the assembly line and loading docks.

A Plymouth assembly plant was closed and 1,200 sent home. Here, Chrysler said a shortage of bodies developed when drivers refused to cross picket lines to bring them into the plant.

Normally UAW members do not cross picket lines of fellow unionists and this would close all 34 plant where pickets appeared.

UAW headquarters announced there would be no strike at any missile or tank plant operated by Chrysler.

Major issues of conflict were demands of white-collar workers for area-wide seniority, an automatic pay progression step-up and a narrowing of differentials for similar work.

Cross Flames At Home Of Negro On School Board

HOUSTON (AP)—A cross burned Monday night in the front yard of Mrs. Charles White, who was elected the first Negro member of the Houston School Board last week.

Three of her five children noticed the flaming cross about 9 p.m. Her husband, an optometrist, quickly extinguished the blaze. He said the cross was about five feet tall.

Mrs. White said she did not think the cross burning reflected the general feeling of the Houston public.

"I feel that the persons who did this are ashamed of their act as they said it did not show themselves," she said.

"I am ashamed that there are persons who would desecrate a cross in such a way."

The Houston School Board received a petition to recall Mrs. White from the election earlier Monday evening. Mrs. White polled about 36,000 votes, approximately 8,000 more than her nearest opponent, incumbent John Glen.

The request forced the school board to delay formal approval of the election results. School attorneys said the board had no right to refuse the recall.

George Polk, judge of Precinct 36 and one of the signers of the petition, claimed that many of the voting machines were not operating properly.

Louis Buchner, superintendent of the voting machine department for Harris County, denied that many of the machines were not working properly.

"I feel that the persons who did this are ashamed of their act as they said it did not show themselves," she said.

"I feel that the persons who did this are ashamed of their act as they said it did not show themselves," she said.

"I am ashamed that there are persons who would desecrate a cross in such a way."

The Houston School Board received a petition to recall Mrs. White from the election earlier Monday evening. Mrs. White polled about 36,000 votes, approximately 8,000 more than her nearest opponent, incumbent John Glen.

The request forced the school board to delay formal approval of the election results. School attorneys said the board had no right to refuse the recall.

George Polk, judge of Precinct 36 and one of the signers of the petition, claimed that many of the voting machines were not operating properly.

Louis Buchner, superintendent of the voting machine department for Harris County, denied that many of the machines were not working properly.

PICTURESQUE SENATOR

SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER (R), Ariz., like most of his colleagues, is at home in front of the camera, but he goes further than that—he's an expert behind a camera. In fact, he's good enough to be an associate of the Royal Photographic Society of London and to have his photos exhibited in many parts of the world. Much of the 49-year-old senator's camera work focuses on his home state of Arizona. He's made aerial reconnaissance pictures of the state, movies of boat trips down the Colorado river and portraits of persons he's met while campaigning. Here are a few of the many pictures that he's taken.

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

PITTSBURGH—(NEA)—One of the more unusual twists of the football season is that Forest Evashevski helped no end to install Iowa's winged-T offense at Louisiana State, currently locked in the lead with the Hawkeyes in the U.S.

Evashevski doesn't wish to be quoted, for it would make him sound as if he were saying, "Look what I did for LSU. They wouldn't be anything if I hadn't helped them."

Evashevski was the guest speaker at a coaches' clinic in Baton Rouge last spring. Paul Dietzel of LSU had switched from his variable split-T to a double winged-T. Evashevski loaned Dietzel movies of Iowa games to study.

"Evashevski was very helpful," says Dietzel, the delightful 34-year-old Tiger drill-master, "but we had been working with the new stuff for a month when he visited Baton Rouge after spring practice. Mississippi employed the winged-T last season, and it was Ole Miss' success with it that made up my mind."

Iowa's winged-T, co-authored by Evashevski and Dave Nelson of Delaware, who was his backfield teammate under Fritz Crider at Michigan, is different than some winged-T offenses, which are merely a T-formation with a wingback instead of three deep backs behind the quarterback.

The Iowa winged-T, and sometimes double winged-T, is an adoption of the best principles of the single wing and T-formation. It has two-on-one blocking like the single wing with pulling guards and trap plays. It has halfback reverses, counter plays and bootleg option rollouts for the quarterback. What it really amounts to is single wing football with the quarterback under the center.

This provides the old rock 'em, sock 'em style of Dr. Jock Sutherland at Pittsburgh while still taking the advantage of a slick ball-handler and passer. The man taking the ball has the ball planted in his arms or takes a lateral while in full stride. Unlike the carrier in the single wing he does not have to check himself for an instant while taking a direct pass from center.

Knute Rockne once told me that he got his football from Jesse Harper and Harper got it from Amos Alonzo Stagg at Chicago. "All football comes from Stagg," stressed Rock.

The ever changing and vastly more complex football of today comes from many sources, however, and the Iowa winged-T is getting around. It has to when a coach puts together 21 victories while losing only two and tying two in more than two and a half years with no soft spots in the fastest kind of college company.

This was supposed to be a down year at Iowa City after losing a flock of fine athletes headed by the All-Americans, end Jim Gibbons and tackle Alex Karras.

A close observer hears more and more of Dave Nelson, the rather obscure Delaware coach, as one of the newer geniuses.

"We got invaluable guidance from Nelson and his line coach, Mike Lude," says Paul Dietzel.

"I talk to Forest Evashevski on the telephone every Monday morning," says Nelson. "The winner calls, so Evy has paid the bill all this season."

Dave Nelson obviously hasn't the horses this trip, but any football man will tell you that a lot of sound football is still coming out of Newark, Del.

A.T.&T. Advance Boosts Stock Market To Record

NEW YORK (AP)—A sharp advance in American Telephone & Telegraph helped the stock market race to a new record high Monday. Final prices were around the day's best.

American Telephone sold at its top price in 27 years, closing up $4 at $200.75.

The upturn added an estimated two billion dollars to the quoted value of all stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based upon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks.

This average gained $1.60 to close at $204.00. The previous record was $202.70 set last Thursday. The Dow Jones industrial average closed at 557.72, up 3.46. Its previous record of 554.25 also was scored last Thursday. The market has been soaring since last Tuesday's election, partly on inflationary psychology. It was helped along Monday by such items as weekly steel production scheduled at a new high for the year, rising auto output and a decline in unemployment levels. There were 681 stocks scoring gains while 344 declined. Volume totaled 3,730,000 shares compared with 3,700,000 Friday.

Du Pont gained $1.62 Eastman Kodak $3, U.S. Steel $1.75, Anaconda $2.62, Ford $1.37, Kennecott $2.12 and Douglas $1.25.

JARUS HOSPITALIZED
LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Bob Jarus, Purdue's best and brightest fullback, was hospitalized Monday with a back injury suffered in the Boiler-makers' 14-14 tie game at Ohio State Saturday.

Purdue officials said it would not be known whether he might be able to play at Northwestern Saturday until a series of tests is completed.

WINGED VICTORIES—In the final stages of assembly, numbers of America's latest operational antiaircraft weapon, the Nike Hercules, move along a conveyor line at the Douglas Aircraft Co. plant in Charlotte, N.C. The Hercules, successor to Nike Ajax, is a surface-to-air radio command missile capable of knocking down any manned aircraft or nonballistic missiles known. The missile body, which can carry either a conventional or nuclear warhead, is 27 feet long and is powered by a solid fuel rocket motor. A 14-foot-long solid rocket booster provides initial impetus. Operational since July, first Hercules units are stationed in the New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Washington-Baltimore areas.

Canvass Gives Stamm Seat In State Legislature

PEKIN, Ill. (AP)—The official canvass of votes cast for state representative in the 46th district Monday gave the seat to Democrat Willis L. Stamm, East Peoria attorney, by a margin of 4½ votes.

Stamm's opponent for the seat in the Illinois legislature, Rae C. Heiple II of Washington, said he would file a petition Tuesday for a recount in about 15 precincts in Tazewell county.

The 46th district is composed of Tazewell, Mason, Fulton and Cass counties. Tallies of the vote from all four counties were dispatched to the secretary of state Monday. Heiple said he would seek a recount in the 15 Tazewell county precincts on grounds that ballots were not scored correctly.

This was the second time Stamm has emerged a victor after he appeared to have been defeated. Last spring a canvass of the primary vote uncovered a 400 vote error that gave him the Democratic nomination when he thought he had lost. Unofficial returns in last week's election showed Heiple 46 votes ahead of Stamm.

Louisiana State Tops AP Grid Poll For Third Straight Week

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's going to take a stout crowbar to pry Louisiana State out of first place in the weekly Associated Press college football poll if the Tigers continue to manhandle their opponents as they did Duke last Saturday. It was their third week as No. 1 team.

The sportswriters and sportscasters participating in the voting, impressed by the 50-18 victory over the Iowa Hawkeyes, who clinched the Big Ten title Saturday, again in the No. 2 spot.

Army held its No. 3 position despite the fact the willing Cadets had a bad score, pulling out a victory over Rice with a long pass in the final seconds of their game at Houston.

Army also was hard-pressed to hold its No. 3 position as Auburn crowded up to within 23 points of Earl Black's team as it moved from fifth to fourth place. Auburn displaced Northwestern in the fourth place, as the Big Ten school dropped out of the top 10 as a result of its defeat by Wisconsin.

Northwestern, in fact, was the only one of the top 10 teams of a week ago to fail to make it this week. Oklahoma held its No. 6 spot. Wisconsin moved up from seventh to fifth. Mississippi jumped from ninth to seventh. Purdue held to No. 8, and the Air Force remained No. 10.

The newcomer to the select list is Texas Christian, which moved from 11th to 9th. Louisiana State gathered 95 first place votes in holding its lead.

Ellen Stevenson Sues Mother Over Borden Mansion

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Ellen Borden Stevenson, former wife of Adlai Stevenson, sued her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ellen Waller Borden Carpenter, in Circuit Court Monday for possession of the so-called Borden mansion on Lake Shore Drive.

Mrs. Stevenson claimed in the suit that Mrs. Carpenter forfeited her right to the 40-room mansion by her remarriage on Jan. 21, 1933.

Soon after Mrs. Carpenter and John Borden, Mrs. Stevenson's father, were divorced in November 1924, Borden granted to his former wife a life interest in the property provided she used it as a private residence. The interest was subject to termination in event of her remarriage.

Later, Borden deeded the property to his two daughters, Mrs. Stevenson and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Borden Hines of New York, subject to Mrs. Carpenter's life interest.

On Sept. 10, 1953, Borden filed a formal notice that he considered Mrs. Carpenter's life interest voided by breach of the restrictions on the grant.

Mrs. Stevenson conducted an art club in the property for several years. The club closed early this year.

In her suit, Mrs. Stevenson seeks for herself and Mrs. Hines an accounting of rents received by Mrs. Carpenter since 1933, the return of $30,000 rent paid by Mrs. Stevenson and the return to Mrs. Stevenson and her sister of 36 rooms of art works and a quantity of silverware which Borden, under terms of the deed, permitted his former wife to use but of which he retained ownership.

Volcano In Japan Erupts, Two Persons Hurt

KARUZAWA, Japan (AP)—Volcanic Mt. Asama erupted Monday night, spewing ashes and molten rocks 30,000 feet. Window glass splintered by the explosion injured two persons, police said.

The Karuzawa Meteorological Station said the eruption was the heaviest since Sept. 18, 1929. Asama last erupted in June 1955.

The upper slopes of 8,340-foot Asama, a favorite haunt of mountaineers, have been closed to climbing since warning was issued last July that a new eruption was due.

with a total of 1,532 points. Iowa got 52 votes for the top spot and accumulated 1,441 points. The only other teams in the top 10 to be backed for No. 1 were Auburn, with six votes; Oklahoma with 3, and Mississippi with 2.

The top 10 teams, with the first place votes and the won-lost records in parentheses (points on 9-8, etc., basis):

1. Louisiana St. (95) (8-0) 1,532
2. Iowa (52) (6-0-1) 1,441
3. Army (6-0-1) 999
4. Auburn (6) (6-0-1) 976
5. Wisconsin (5-1-1) 786
6. Oklahoma (3) (6-1) 783
7. Mississippi (2) (7-1) 535
8. Purdue (5-1-1) 280
9. Texas Christian (6-1) 287
10. Air Force (6-0-1) 249

Second ten: North Carolina (2) 218; Syracuse 179; Northwestern 166; Pittsburgh 152; Southern Methodist 67; Ohio State 59; Rice 43; Florida 37; Rutgers (1) 35; Georgia Tech 19.

Father Kills Girl In Argument Over Food Donation

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—A 12-year-old girl, one of six children in a family on relief, was stabbed to death by her father Monday in an argument over donating food for a school Thanksgiving basket for the poor.

"We need it more than they do," the father was quoted as saying.

Robert Campbell, 47, was charged with murder. Police said he plunged a paring knife into the chest of his daughter, Mildred. She died instantly.

Four of the Campbell's other children were present in the family kitchen at the time. The Campbells live in Columbus Homes, a low-rent housing project.

Campbell is an epileptic and unemployed, police said. He was dazed and incoherent when taken to headquarters.

Mildred, a sixth-grader at St. Lucy's Catholic parochial school, asked her father for a box of gelatin or a bag of walnuts for the school Thanksgiving basket, her mother told police.

Neighbors said an argument ranged for nearly half an hour. They could hear the father shouting and apparently throwing household items.

10 YEARS AHEAD

HAKONE, Japan (AP)—In the opinion of Eddie Stanky of the St. Louis Cardinals, Japanese baseball will be of major league caliber in 10 years.

"I have found three Japanese players with major league talent," said Stanky, a front office executive with the touring Cardinals. He listed shortstop Tatsuhiro Hirooka of the Yomiuri Giants, and pitchers Tadashi Sugitani of the Nankai Hawks and Atsushi Aramaki of the Daiichi Orions.

Stanky predicted Japanese will be playing in the American majors "in the not too far future."

DIBENEDDETTO DIES

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Lawrence Dibeneditto Sr., former national president of the National Amateur Athletic Union and one of the founders of the New Orleans Sugar Bowl, died Monday after a long illness. He was 75.

Dibeneditto, who also served as secretary-treasurer of the Southern AAU since its inception in 1906, was hospitalized a year ago. He returned to work, but went back into the hospital several weeks ago.

His death followed by one week that of Fred Doby, general manager of the Sugar Bowl.

INJURY KILLS BOXER

HAVANA (AP)—Jose (Tiger) Blanco, a Cuban featherweight boxer, died Monday in a private clinic of a brain hemorrhage after being knocked out by Ulysses (Sugar) Ramos in the eighth round of a bout Saturday night.

Blanco, 22, had been boxing since 1956. Ring records show he had lost three previous 1958 bouts.

Temperatures as high as 129 degrees Fahrenheit have been recorded in Iraq.

Football Briefs

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State football coach Duffy Daugherty can boast of one distinction Monday.

Most losing football coaches are hanged in effigy only once. But there were two stuffed images of Duffy strung up on the Spartan campus over the weekend.

Michigan State's sole remaining Big Ten football game is with Minnesota, the only team down deeper in the conference standings.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Brad Myers of Evanston, Ill., returned to regular left halfback Monday as battered Michigan began drills for surprising Indiana.

Darrell Harper and Reid Bushong, the first two Wolverine left halfbacks, were hurt in last Saturday's Illinois game. Myers had been switched to right half after starting the first two games of the season at left half.

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin's football Badgers, weary from their 17-13 victory over Northwestern, were given a day of rest Monday by coach Milt Bruhn.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota coach Murray Warmath Monday made several shifts in his first string team as he started preparing the Gophers for Michigan State.

The Gopher first team worked against freshmen running Michigan State plays, then against reserves in MSU defensive formations.

IOWA CITY, IOWA (AP)—The Big Ten champion Iowa Hawkeyes ran through signal drills Monday, then went indoors to watch movies they prepared for Saturday's football game with Ohio State here.

The team appeared relaxed and quite elated over plucking the Western Conference title and Rose Bowl bid with last Saturday's 29-6 victory over Minnesota.

Right halfback Ray Jauch of Mendota, Ill., continues to be the Hawks' leading ground gainer with a total of 436 yards on 64 carries in seven games.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's twice-tied and once-beaten football team meets unbeaten Iowa in Iowa City Saturday.

Freshmen and subs Monday put on black jerseys with gold numerals—Iowa style—to practice Hawkeye offensive and defensive formations for use against the first team this week.

WELLS, Vt. (AP)—Sportsmanship sank to a new low Monday when a deaf and dumb minor was robbed of his first deer.

Francis Keating, 48, of Sandy Hook, Conn., killed a six-point buck on Mack Knob, a ridge several miles north of here. He dragged the carcass down to a clearing and was preparing to dress it when a gun was poked against his back and he was grabbed by the neck.

He made it apparent he could neither speak nor hear. Then a note, written on a paper bag, was shoved before his face. It read: "Don't turn around or we'll shoot. Stay in this position at least a half hour."

Police who examined the scene estimated three or four "sportsmen" participated in the hijacking.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Illinois had no new injuries to contend with Monday as it started football practices for Wisconsin.

Quarterback Bob Hickey of Chicago, who has an injured hand, and halfback Dick McDale, of Urbana, with an injured hip, still are rated uncertain for Saturday's contest.

Returning to duty, however, were halfbacks L. T. Bonner of Zion, Dour Wallace of Elgin, and Joe Krakocki of Westville.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Notre Dame's No. 1 center, sophomore Myron Pottios of Van Voorhis, Pa., Monday was lost to the football team for the remainder of the season with a shoulder separation.

Coach Terry Brennan made the announcement as he began preparations for Notre Dame's home finale Saturday against North Carolina. Pottios was injured in the Pittsburgh game.

Sophomore fullback Dan Griffith of Chicago has a bruised hip which will sideline him for the Tar Heels.

Jim Schaaf, first string left guard who has been out of three games with an inner ear infection, took part in practices and may play some Saturday. Right tackle Bronko Nagurski, shelved for two weeks with a knee injury, is expected to be withheld for another week.

DUFFY DAUGHERTY HUNG IN EFFIGY

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State Coach Duffy Daugherty now has been hanged in effigy—like three other losing Big Ten coaches who got the noose ahead of him this season.

A dummy found hanging from a lamp post near Spartan Stadium Sunday carried a card around its neck, reading: "Goodbye Duffy, bring back Biggie."

MSU lost 6-0 to Indiana Saturday. The Spartans haven't won a conference game this fall but have lost four and tied one. Other Big Ten coaches getting the noose ahead of Daugherty were Bennie Oosterbaan of Michigan, Murray Warmath of Minnesota and Woody Hayes of Ohio State.

The 100 islands in mid-Atlantic which constitute Bermuda and the exposed portions of a submergent mountain.

EARNING HIS KEEP—Joe Kapp is on a football scholarship at California. The tall All-America quarterback candidate receives $100 a month for clearing the field of tackling dummies and other equipment after practice. Keeps him in shape.

Odds On Ballymoss Shorten For Seventh International Race

By JOHN F. CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—With a firm and fast grass course in prospect for the Washington, D.C., International Tuesday, the odds on favored Ballymoss were shortened, but Russia scored a strategic victory in the draw for post positions.

Zaryad, the pacemaking half of the Soviet team, drew the No. 1 spot when formal entries were made Monday morning. Garnir, the late comer who beat Zaryad in the Moscow Derby, was on the extreme outside in No. 10. Sandwiched in between were eight horses from six other nations.

This is the seventh running of the $100,000 classic in which the winner collects $70,000.

Ballymoss, champion of Europe who runs for Ireland but is owned by John McShain of Philadelphia, got No. 7 post in the draw. The Irish-bred colt's odds were sliced from 8 to 5 to 6 to 5 for the mile and one half battle on the grass course.

Clear and cool weather was forecast with the temperature in the upper 50s by the 3:45 p.m. (EST) posttime. Ballymoss, who won the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes and the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, runs in about the middle of the pack and makes his move in the stretch. He won the Arc de Triomphe on a track softened by rain, but trainer Vincent O'Brien said he prefers firm footing.

Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Cien, second choice at 4 to 1, runs on the front end, but he drew No. 8 post and Jockey Willie Shoemaker will have to get him away flying to gain position. Right alongside Cien in the walkup start is the other U.S. representative, Mrs. Herbert Hoff's Tudor Era.

The German horse, Baron Henry Thyssen's Orsini, got the No. 2 post.

Alfredo Lechin's Escribano, from Venezuela, drew No. 3; Tharp, an Irish colt brought over by Carlisle H. Palmer of New York, is No. 4; Australia's handicapper champion, Sailor's Guide, two owned by A. C. Dibb and his son, Keith, drew No. 5; and No. 6 went to Dr. Erwin Wasserman's Revoque, from Argentina.

TIGHT RACE PREDICTED
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—One of the tightest national big car driving championship battles on record will be resolved Tuesday in the final race of the season.

Nursing a 30-point edge going into the 100-mile chase through the dirt at the Arizona State Fairgrounds is veteran Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill.

He and second place George Amick of Venice, Calif., hope to stand off the late surge that has carried Johnny Thomson of Boyertown, Pa., to four firsts and two seconds in the last seven United States Auto Club races.

Bettenhausen has 1,670 points to 1,640 for Amick and 1,530 for Thomson. First place in Tuesday's race is good for 200 points.

The average freight car on U.S. railroads travel about 47 miles a day.

Building Bond Issue Hinges On Few Votes

CHICAGO (AP)—The fate of Illinois' proposed 248-million-dollar bond issue for building improvements at state universities and hospitals appeared Monday to hinge on a few hundred votes.

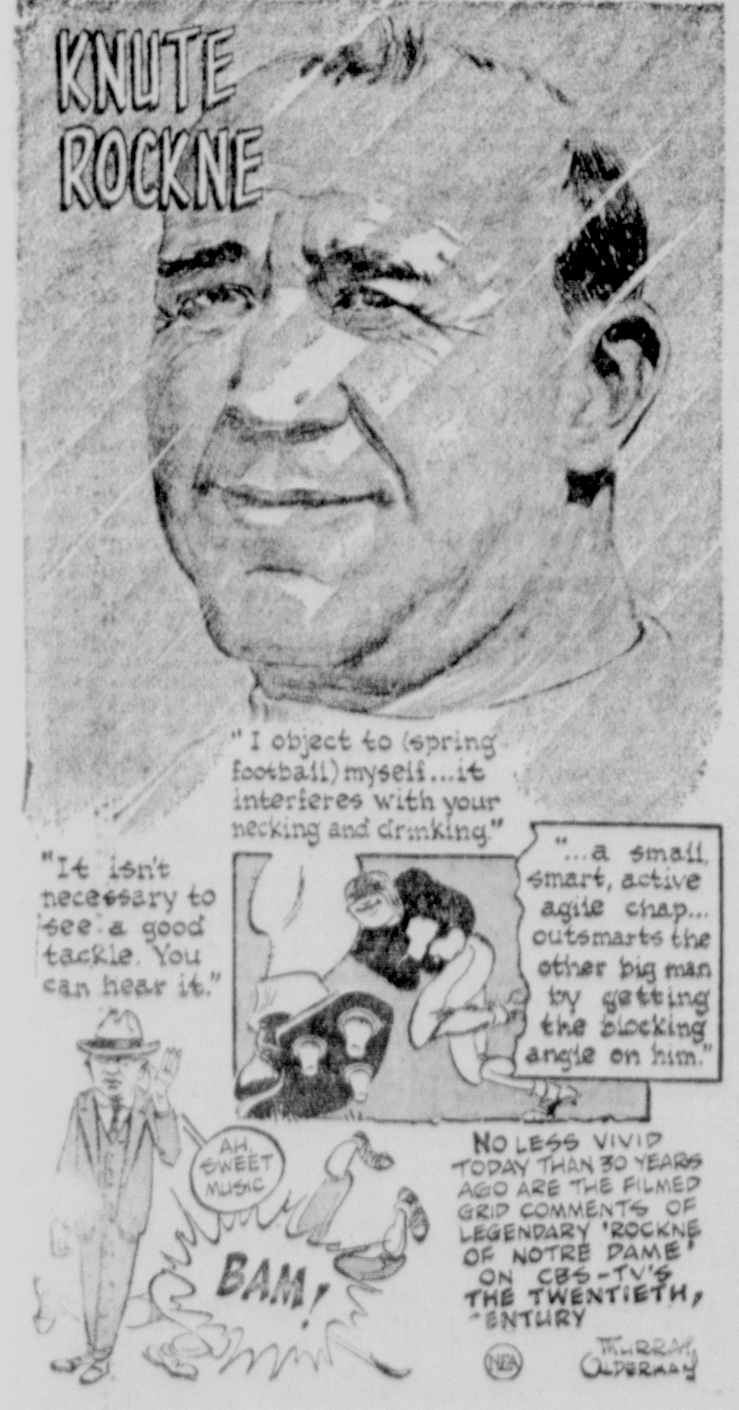

Latest unofficial returns tabulated by The Associated Press covered 9,321 of the state's 9,905 precincts. They gave the proposal 1,333,361 yes votes and 1,114,135 no votes.

To pass, the bond issue requires a majority of the votes cast for members of the Illinois General Assembly in the Nov. 4 election. This figure is determined by using the vote for state senator or sixth third of the vote for House members, whichever is higher, in each county.

Although the General Assembly vote usually is less than the vote for state officers, it is expected to be somewhat greater than three million.

All but about 100 of the missing precinct returns were from downstate where the vote ran from about even to 2-1 against the proposition.

The 248-million-dollar question appeared to be whether the 170,000 or so votes for adoption of the bond issue will be found in the 984 precincts still unreported.

Corn Producers Urged To Study Proposals - And Vote On Nov. 25

Farmers of Illinois are being urged to carefully study the two proposals in the corn referendum to be voted on Tuesday, Nov. 25, and then turn out to vote.

Some farm leaders fear that Cornbelt farmers won't vote and that the program for next year will be decided by heavy balloting in "the fringe territory."

Carpentier At Virginia Dinner For Postmaster

VIRGINIA—Auto license plates will be delivered this year faster than at any time in Illinois history, Charles F. Carpentier, secretary of state, declared Monday night.

He addressed a meeting sponsored by the Virginia Kiwanis Club in honor of C. R. Wilson, Virginia postmaster, who was recently named national "Postmaster of the Year."

Carpentier said streamlined operations in the automobile division of his office will make possible the faster delivery of plates.

He added that mailing of plates this year began on Nov. 1, a month earlier than in previous years. Carpentier said this will substantially reduce a backlog which had accumulated in past years during the Christmas season.

The President said that at MacMurray "the evaluation of our business operations will be particularly useful in view of the expansion of these operations which is currently going on. As we plan our course for the next few years, it will be useful to have the opinion of experts to guide us so that our expansion will take place at the most economical rate. Since the business operations of MacMurray have about doubled in the last four or five years, and since the budget will continue to expand for another three or four years, the pertinence of such a study is evident."

Second Grant To MacMurray
The Lilly grant is the second made to MacMurray within the past two years. The first was a $36,000 contribution to sponsor a three-year experimental course for students in Jacksonville high school.

Dr. Leroy Garrett, Assistant Professor of Philosophy at MacMurray, is teaching the course, now in its second year at JHS. It is the only course of its kind currently being taught in the U.S., and was originally suggested to Lilly Endowment several years ago by Dr. Norris.

MacMurray Named In $22,000 Grant

MacMurray College is included in a $22,000 grant to six Illinois colleges, by Lilly Endowment of Indianapolis, President Louis W. Norris announced Tuesday.

"Evaluating the business operations of these colleges is the objective," Dr. Norris said, adding that it is "to see whether any improvement in efficiency is possible, and to discover whether any collaboration in business operations could be effected."

Other colleges are Illinois Wesleyan University, Lake Forest, Carthage, Aurora, and Greenville. They will be studied by the National Federation Consulting Service, a nationally known service employing experts in their field.

"This is a test group of colleges with a view to deciding whether comparable studies throughout the country are necessary," the President commented.

"The grant assumes that an evaluation of colleges is profitable but it makes no initial assumption that they are badly managed."

The President said that at MacMurray "the evaluation of our business operations will be particularly useful in view of the expansion of these operations which is currently going on. Student Army Corps Gave City Military Air Back In 1918

Since the term "Veteran's Day" has replaced "Armistice Day," some tend to forget just what the origin of that day was. But that will never be the case for 118 men who met on the campus of Illinois College in the fall of 1918 to form the Hilltop campus post of the S.A.T.C., or Student Army Training Corps.

Dean Iver F. Yeager of Illinois College found an old clipping in his files the other day from the Jacksonville Courier of September 2, 1918, which tells of the formation of this unit at I.C.

The headlines read "Student Army at I.C. Is Now Fully Planned: President Rammekamp Returns from Conference With War Department Officials at Fort Sheridan; Men To Be Real Soldiers; Members of Corps Will Live in Barracks at College and Will Be Under Military Discipline." The story goes on to relate the details of organization of the S.A.T.C.

Issue Uniforms, Rifles
The government issued uniforms, overcoats, rifles, and other equipment to these men. It also paid for the room, board, and tuition of the student soldiers. Under the agreement Crampston Hall was turned into an army barracks, with the upper floor of the old gymnasium converted into a mess hall.

The S.A.T.C. units on both the Illinois College and Millikin University campuses were at first put under the command of a dictator captain who was soon replaced by one Lt. Gordon Coons. The college calendar and curriculum were revised to make room for two hours of drill each day. Some additional time was given each day to theoretical instruction in military tactics.

In return for assuming the status of soldiers, the students who participated were paid the same $30 a month that regular army privates received.

The War Department promised shipment in a short time of the necessary coats and bedding for equipping the barracks in Crampston Hall.

The "Centennial History" of Illinois College by President Charles Henry Rammekamp, who was head of the college at that time, states that the actual equipment did not arrive until after the armistice had been signed, and no one actually had to go to war from the S.A.T.C. However, a total of slightly over 400 Illinois College men were called to the colors, and of that number nine were killed in action.

Demobilized After Armistice
The S.A.T.C. on the Hilltop was of short duration—the organization taking place on September 12 and the order for demobilization coming on November 26—but in that time the campus took on an entirely different appearance. A picture from Rammekamp's History shows S.A.T.C. men busy digging trenches in the middle of the campus; ordinary student activities came to a virtual standstill.

Perhaps one of the most important contributions which the college made to the war through its alumni was the work of the Red Cross Commission to Greece, which included Professor Edward Capps, '87 as chairman, and Dr. Carl E. Black, father of local physician and Illinois College trustee Dr. C. Ellsworth Black, and former president of the college Clifford Webster Barnes.

Through the continuing efforts of Professor Capps and others Athens College was eventually founded in Greece. A new building there was recently named in honor of Professor Capps.

Most of these events have been forgotten now, except for those men who shared the experience as a part of the college days. The clipping will go back into the files and the episode will become a part of the continuing history of Illinois College.

In Hebrew, the girl's name Susan means "a lily."

The program, in charge of Mrs. Mabel Robson, closed with "Bless Be The Tie That Binds," and prayer by Rev. Causner.

Births
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Turner, Palmyra route three, became the parents of a son born at 6:59 p.m. Monday at Passavant hospital, weight eight pounds, and one-half ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. John Emery, 1314 Goltz, became the parents of a daughter born at 7:43 p.m. Monday at Passavant hospital, weight seven pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lomelino, 1231 Kins street, became the parents of a daughter born at 7 a.m. Tuesday at Passavant hospital, weight six pounds, eight and one-half ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Rene Lemme, 815 Hardin Ave., became the parents of a second son Monday morning at ten o'clock at Springfield Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Lemme is the former Ruth Sour of Farmersville. The child weighed six pounds, five ounces.

SPRINGFIELD WOMAN FATALLY BURNED
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P)—Miss Anna Pehlman, 71, died Monday from burns suffered when her clothing caught fire while she was cooking supper. Coroner W. C. Telford said an apron she was using as a not pad ignited and set fire to her clothing.

CHANDLERVILLE CWF TO MEET NOV. 12
CHANDLERVILLE — The November meeting of the C.W.F. of the Christian church will meet Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 2 p.m. at the church, Mrs. Ethel Lehman will be leader, Miss Ruth Leeper, worship leader. The program topics is, "Our Neighbors, Alaska, Hawaii and Italy."

Mrs. O. E. Burnett will report on the International convention at St. Louis, Mo.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Tilden Lynn and Mrs. Nell Shankland.

Elected President
Word has been received by Mrs. Clifford Cook that Rev. Neva Morris, former pastor of the Chandlerville Christian church, has been elected president of the West Central District. Mrs. Norris also was among the three highest nominees for the title of "Rural Preachers of the Year in Illinois."

NORTH MAIN GRASS FIRE
Firemen traveled to 1033 North Main street at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, where a grass fire was drenched with hand pumps.

Salem WSCS Holds Potluck Supper
The annual meeting of Salem WSCS was held at the church with a large attendance. A potluck supper was served in charge of Mrs. Vivian Parlier, Mrs. Fannie Boyd, Mrs. Laura Masters and Mrs. Lois Green.
